Softball League Now Organized

A Pahokee-Canal Point Softball League is now in the process of being organized by the Pahokee Recreation Department under the supervision of Clyde Alley, city recreation director.

League teams will be sponsored by five business firms in the area: The Standard Oil Company, Elliott-Lynn Ford Agency, Jones Hardware, the Bank of Pahokee and Snyder's Chevrolet Company.

Forms for signing up to play on one of the various teams are now available at Jones Hardware store, the Blue Devil Drive Inn and the Community Swimming Pool.

All persons interested in the softball league are urged to attend the meeting in the city park Monday, June 20, at 7:30 p. m., at which time all the signed forms will be collected, shuffled thoroughly and a drawing of the names of 15 players for each team will take place under the supervision of Frank O'Connell, commissioner of the league. Other rules and regulations for league play and a schedule of games will also be worked out at this meeting.

Emmett P. Holt Is Pahokee Lions Head

Other new club officers inducted by Dr. Claude E. Hicks of Lake Worth, district governor, who acted as installing officer, were Lewis Friend, first vice president; E. J. Graham, second vice president; R. L. Brooks, third vice president; J. L. Schroder, secretary; Albert Snyder, treasurer; L. M. Collins, latimer; J. W. Vann, lion tamer; R. B. Simonson, Rupert Mock, J. M. Elliott and Duncan Padgett, directors.

Duncan Padgett was awarded a grand master key at the meeting by Lions International and R. J. Schroder received a special award for his record of five years of perfect attendance at club meetings. It was announced that 20 members of the Pahokee club are eligible for awards for perfect attendance through the past year.

Learn To Swim At Swimming Pool

A "Learn to Swim" campaign will be launched at the Community Swimming Pool for residents of the Lake Okechobee area, starting Monday, June 20, according to Clyde Alley, city recreation director.

Swimming lessons will be given to child beginners at the pool on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 9:30 to 11:45 a. m. Lessons for adults who wish to learn to swim will be held on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9:30 to 11:45 a. m.

The American Red Cross for the past few weeks has been training a group of instructors at the pool who will be in charge of the teaching at the various swimming classes, Mr. Alley said.

Wife Of County Commissioner Dies

The hundreds of friends of Mrs. Mary Elise Prince, 44, wife of County Commissioner John Prince were stunned this week to learn of her passing at the Prince home on Hypoluxo-rd., Lake Worth early Monday morning. Death followed a long illness.

Rosary services were held in Lake Worth for her, 8 p. m., Tuesday at a funeral home there. A requiem mass was held at 9 a. m., Wednesday at the Sacred Heart Church in Lake Worth. Interment was made in Pinecrest Cemetery.

The County Commission ordered that all offices in the Court House be closed from 9 until 11 a. m. Wednesday in respect to Mrs. Prince.

New Directory To Phone Subscribers

A new telephone directory for Pahokee, containing many new and changed listings and other helpful telephone information, has just been distributed.

Approximately 700 new directories have been delivered to homes and offices, according to C. H. Baghman, manager for the Southern Bell Telephone Company.

The new directory has a gray cover, which makes it easily distinguishable from the old green-covered telephone book.

Mr. Baghman asks that telephone users refer to the new directory for the desired number. Looking up the number helps avoid the possibility of getting a wrong number, and frequently saves time for the calling party as well as the party who might be called in error. Consulting the directory also helps make the best use of already crowded central office equipment. "Information" should be called only when the desired number is not listed in the directory.

Mr. Baghman suggests that the old directories be turned over to scrap paper collectors with other waste paper.

Boys Quartet Wins In FFA Contest

James Sims, past president of the Pahokee FFA Chapter and a vice president of the state organization, and Richard L. Brooks, local FFA chapter advisor, also attended the convention.

Howell Waring of Madison and J. B. Woodham of Stuart, former Pahokee High School students, were among the 90 FFA boys in the State who received State Farmer degrees at the convention.

Mrs. Jean Swinim and daughter, Pat, of Pennsylvania are guests this week of Mrs. Swinim's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Graham, in Pahokee.

Summer Classes In Band Instruction

Lampi, bandmaster and director of music at Pahokee Schools, for an eight-week period, June 20-Aug. 12, the classes to be held from 9 a. m. to 12 noon and from 1 to 4 p. m. ## Flag Day Program Scheduled Sunday

The anniversary of the birth of the Stars and Stripes will be celebrated with exercises jointly sponsored by Pahokee Lodge No. 1638 and Belle Glade Lodge No. 1716 of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks to be held in the Pahokee Elks' Lodge at 2:30 p. m., Sunday, June 19.

The program will open with the advancing of the colors by the color guard of Fred and Percy Mansfield Post No. 90 of the American Legion. This will be followed by the Flag Day Ritual presented by the officers of Belle Glade and Pahokee Lodges, B. P. O. E. A high-light of the exercises will be the History of the Flag, given by Mr. Clyde Trammell, Eastern Leading Knight of West Palm Beach Lodge No. 1352, B. P. O. E. During the rendition of this history the nine flags used during the history of the United States, from colonial days to the present, will be advanced by members of the local Sea Scout Ship. The response to the History of the Flag will be given by James W. Vann, Exalted Ruler of Pahokee Lodge No. 1638.

As a part of these exercises a memorial tablet will be unveiled in honor of S-Sgt. Cecil L. Barnes, only brother of Pahokee Lodge No. 1638 to make the supreme sacrifice during World War II in defense of the principles which Our Flag represents.

The observation of Flag Day is an occasion on which all Americans may join in re-dedicating themselves to the principles of Americanism. The Elks' Lodge of Belle Glade and Pahokee invite and urge all residents of this area to join them in pledging anew their support of Our Flag and the high principles for which it stands.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

(By Russell Kay)

When my friend Dale Carnegie, author of "How to Win Friends and Influence People" visited Tampa not long ago to receive a degree from the University of Tampa, I had planned to take him on a tarpon fishing trip.

But Mother Nature, as she often does, upset our apple-cart by dishing up a lovely mess of windy weather that made it too choppy to enjoy an outing on the water.

Giving Dale a rain-check on the fishing trip I submitted a motor trip to the Gulf Beaches, Clearwater, Dunedin and Tarpon Springs. He had never visited the Greek settlement there and was anxious to see it.

Leaving Tampa about 11:00 A. M. we drove to the West Coast over beautiful Courtney Campbell Parkway and I told him the story of how Campbell, as a member of the State Road Department, transformed a dreary sand and wind-swept causeway into a thing of beauty and service where thousands of folks came each day to fish, swim and picnic, using the comfortable shelters and parking areas provided. He was very much impressed particularly when I explained that all this had been done without any special appropriation or extra cost to the taxpayers.

One of Florida's big jobs is to "Win Tourists and Influence Them." Since Dale Carnegie was playing the role of a tourist on this occasion, I was especially interested in his reactions.

Like most folks who take a visit or on a tour or sight-seeing trip, I attempted to call Dale's attention to what I thought were "points of interest." Picking him up at the Tampa Terrace Hotel, I explained that the antiquated building on our right was the Court House, while the more modern building on the left was the City Hall. I proudly pointed out our First Baptist Church, the new Bayshore Apartment building, our Municipal Airport, none of which seemed to impress him in the least. He hardly took the trouble to look at them and only acknowledged my enthusiasm with a grunt.

But it wasn't a lack of interest in Florida or in life that caused such reaction on his part. He was interested in a lot of things that to me seemed trivial and unimportant.

Ignoring public buildings, airports and industrial plants such as the American Can Company of Florida Portland Cement plant, which I thought were very important, he gave his attention to flowering shrubs and plants, diving-bombing pelicans, prancing fiddler-crabs and citrus trees in bloom.

Crossing the Campbell Parkway, he made me stop the car so he could watch a fellow catch a fish. Casting from the shore, the fisherman had hooked a large drum. Watching the battle was thrilling for all of us.

In Tarpon Springs, Carnegie got a real kick out of the sponge fleet and pronounced the Greek salad at Pappas Restaurant the best he had ever experienced. Roaming about the quaint Greek settlement, he struck up a conversation with folks he met, sponge fishermen, store clerks, workmen in overalls. Commenting on his visit with one old man, from whom he bought some conch shells and other curios, he said, "You know, Russell, I'd rather spend an hour with a man like that than the Governor." And it was no reflection of Fuller, for he meant Any Governor. He likes little people, everybody, that most of the world takes for granted, and he finds the contacts he makes with them immensely worthwhile.

Stopping to visit the little chapel built by Steve Talakis, he chanced to see an old mother cat nursing a half dozen fat kittens. He was fascinated. He spent at least twenty minutes just watching this commonplace sight, commenting on the ability of the mother cat to completely relax and at the same time be constantly on guard, her bright eyes following every movement about her. Likening the kittens to children, he determined which was the bully of the outfit and noted how he made a practice of pushing his brothers and sisters around.

On the drive back to Tampa I questioned him on the subject of human interest. "Life itself," he said, "are the interesting things," and people are real and genuine and ever changing. Public buildings, airports, industrial plants and like aren't in themselves interesting. They are just monuments. You find them everywhere, many bigger and finer than anything Florida has to offer, but where can you find such distinctive plants and flowers, evidence of the joy of outdoor life, peace and happiness as is attested by a saucy mocking bird, a mother cat and her kittens basking in the warm sunshine, tiny multicolored crabs that wave you a welcome on the shore. "Tell your visitors about these things and show them Florida's natural charm and beauty and you will 'Win tourists and influence them' to come often and eventually become permanent residents," he said.

Capital Briefs Of State Interest

TALLAHASSEE — Cattle fencing became law without fanfare when Governor Fuller Warren signed the bill to keep livestock off the highways. It takes effect July 1, 1950, almost a year later than the governor wanted, and with much of the teeth to earlier stock laws pulled. Warren also signed into law the bill to let the state compel active tuberculosis victims to submit to medical treatment. The companion bill to tax cigarettes one cent a pack to pay for more sanatoria got lost in the last minute, legislative shuffle.

TALLAHASSEE — Miss Barbara Manning of Los Angeles and Governor Fuller Warren will be married at the home of the bride on June 26. Announcement came from her mother, and was a complete surprise to the governor's Florida friends. His name has been romantically linked with several Florida women since he took office, but there had been no hint of the romance which started when he visited California last year to inspect their citrus system. Miss Manning 24 years old, will be the youngest first lady in Florida history. She was born and educated in Los Angeles and the University of Southern California.

TALLAHASSEE — The Quincy Telephone Company was refused a request for higher rates when the Florida Railroad and Public Utilities Commission found the company's present return "fair," reasonable and "just." The commission conducted a public hearing on the application and after analyzing the testimony, found the Gadsden county company is making more than 6 percent on its investment. The company attempted to show that its local Quincy operation was losing money although its toll service is profitable. The commission found no reason to break these down, and denied the application. This is the second turn-down on rate increases in recent months, the commission having rejected the application from the St. Joseph Telephone and Telegraph Company.

TALLAHASSEE — A 10 percent cut in personnel and a 15 percent reduction in expenses has been ordered by the Florida Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission. More money was refused by the legislature, in turning down a bill to add to the present fishing and hunting licenses. Director Coleman Newman said the commission has instructed him to cut down by at least 30 game wardens, to reduce fish restocking and to complete only one instead of five district radio systems.

TALLAHASSEE — An integrated bar, in which all lawyers must join the state bar association, has been ordered by the Florida Supreme Court. Justice Glenn Terrell, writing the majority opinion, said the integrated bar "is the best means yet devised to enlist the full manpower of the bar in the execution of its duty." Local proponents of the move pointed out that lawyers, unlike any other profession, are officers of the court, and as such are subject to court order.

TALLAHASSEE — Bonuses which reached new highs were voted by the legislature to 65 employees, in amounts totaling $15,125. These extra payments were a part of nearly $600,000 in expenses for the session just closed. Chief clerk of the senate received $1,700 extra, chief clerk of house $1,300 extra, and other attaches and employees received lesser amounts. These sums are in addition to their regular pay for the 60-day session.

Mr. and Mrs. Inman W. Weeks left last weekend for a visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Hamilton, in Durham, N. C. Before returning home Mrs. Weeks plans to enter the Duke University Hospital for treatment.

Don't Fence Yourself In

Every spring, Handy Peterson and Easy Roberts patch up the stone wall that separates their farms. They walk along talking—Easy on one side, Handy on the other—picking up the fallen stones and putting them back.

Afterwards, over a friendly glass of beer, Easy says, "You know, wall-mending is a nice neighborly custom, but we really don't need that wall. We keep it up just because it happens to be there."

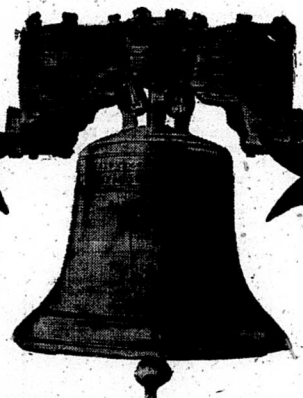

"Yes," says Handy, "a lot of walls and fences and boundaries keep on separating people for no good reason. Maybe we'd all be better off if some of them were torn down, instead of kept standing."

From where I sit, Handy said a mouthful. Take the "walls of intolerance" that people build up against each other. I like a temperate glass of beer now and then, you may prefer buttermilk—but that's no reason for me to criticize you, or you, me. Let's live and let live together—making more friends and fewer "walls."

High Priced Biddies Flown By PAA Line

MIAMI — Seven-day-old chicks literally worth their weight in gold were flown from Miami to Havana recently by Pan American World Airways. The ordinary little biddy—and PAA flies hundreds daily to Latin America—costs only a dime or 15 cents each. But the seven emigrating to Cuba were in the higher brackets of the poultry world. Four were priced at $1.50 each, two at $7.50 each and one promising crockered was valued at $15.50—a new high in PAA's experience.

Colin English Job Is Terminated

TALLAHASSEE — The cabinet Tuesday abolished the position of coordinator of higher education it created six months ago and gave to Colin English.

The Legislature, which adjourned last Friday, declined to provide funds to make the office and English's employment permanent. On the motion of Gov. Warren, English was given the usual two weeks "termination pay for persons leaving the state under honorable circumstances."

English could not be reached immediately for comment.

The former state school superintendent, who ran unsuccessfully for governor last year, has been drawing his salary at the rate of $6,500 a year from Gov. Warren's contingent fund because the cabinet board of education which hired him has no money of its own.

The cabinet recommended that the legislature appropriate $14,400 a year to pay English $8,000, his secretary $3,000 and office expenses for the two years beginning July 1, but the Legislature declined.

A proposed clause in the appropriations bill also would have barred the governor from paying salaries from his contingent fund; but an administration leader got that knocked out after stating he was authorized to say English would not be paid from the fund.

Establish Center For Art At Venice

VENICE — Sarasota County's claim as the "Art Center of Florida" has been further advanced with the formation of an elaborate art center at Venice.

The colony, known as Artist's Guild, is a non-profit organization sponsored by a group of leading merchants and businessmen including the mayor of Venice and a well-rounded representation of Venice's more progressive citizens.

A survey of all artistic talent in the area was made by a volunteer group to determine the range of courses that will be added to the school's established curriculum.

Founders Edward A. Beaudry and Walter A. Dienhart announced that the school will open next October with classrooms in the Gulfbreeze Hotel. Beaudry stated that one of the finest staff of teachers possible was being assembled and already many well-known names throughout art circles had been signed, including Edward Leonard, William Tracy, Col. and Mrs. John F. Fishback and Mary Leonard. Edward Leonard has been appointed as the Director of the School of Art. Other staff members will be announced at a later date.

Mrs. J. R. York left Wednesday for a visit with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Browning Roach, in Maryville, Tenn., and also plans to visit relatives in North Carolina before returning home late in the summer. She was accompanied as far as North Florida by Miss Ruth Dorsey who will spend the summer with relatives in Pennsylvania.

The pike of Florida waters is the true pike, for the fish called "walleyed pike" in other states really belongs to the perch family.

Warren Vetoes Bill To Legalize Gambling

TALLAHASSEE—A bill raising the tax on coin-operated pin ball machines and legalizing free games for winning scores has been vetoed by Governor Warren. The Governor said he vetoed the measure because it would authorize gambling, as defined by the Supreme Court, and might revive the law legalizing slot machines and one-armed bandits.

The bill, passed in the closing days of the recent legislature, increased the tax on coin-operated music machines and pin ball machines operated with one or more balls. Governor Warren said he also was opposed to the bill because it contained no restriction on the number and no regulation of the machines.

Governor Warren also vetoed a bill requiring the Cabinet to provide the Florida Historical Society with office space. He said the purpose of the Society was a "laudable one" but it would be a dangerous precedent for the State to start furnishing office space for non-State agencies.

The Governor also vetoed a bill authorizing homebreeding by war veterans of public lands in Palm Beach, Escambia and Polk Counties.

Local Boys Receive Honors From FFA

Seven area high school boys were among 90 Florida schoolboys awarded Florida State Farmer degrees when the 21st annual Future Farmers of America State convention opened at Daytona Beach Tuesday, according to an Associated Press report.

They are: A. H. Cothern, James Fielder and George Meser, of Clewiston, and Donald Brown, Thomas Warren Goode, Gordon Terry and J. B. Woodham, of Stuart.

The degree, highest award in the Florida Association of Future Farmers, is awarded for high standards of work in supervised farming, leadership cooperative activities, scholarship and recreation.

The quartet from the Pahokee Chapter, FFA, won second place for singing groups Monday night. It included Bobby Schroder, Willard McCurdy, both local delegates to the convention, and Charles McCurdy and Dickie Atkins.

In the public speaking contest the only Martin County winner was Gordon Terry, of Stuart.

TO HAVE BENCHES

Mrs. A. E. Morgan and Mrs. R. J. Schroder, representing the Pahokee Woman's Club, appeared before the City Council at the regular meeting Tuesday night to request that the council place public benches in the park in front of the city hall. The council voted to comply with the club's request.

R. J. Schroder, waterworks superintendent, was authorized to employ a man at the waterworks plant, replacing Harry Sheppard who is ill at the Veterans Hospital in Coral Gables.

Cinematic Chatter

By Malcolm Millar

You certainly will be a happy person if you attend the Prince Theatre this Sunday-Monday and laugh your way through "Yea Gotta Stay Happy," which stars Joan Fontain and James Stewart and features Eddie Albert, Roland Young, Willard Parker and Percy Kilbride.

Listed as one of the funniest comedies of the season it will fairly rock the walls of the Prince Theatre through every frame.

The ingenious and breezy story deals with the exciting and often side-splitting adventures of a reluctant bachelor aviator. Some of the gay action takes place aboard a transcontinental cargo plane.

Here's a laugh tip for you. Marjorie Main and Percy Kilbride, stars of "The Egg and I" will be on the screen of the Prince Theatre Tuesday-Wednesday. For another yell show don't miss it.

See you at the movies—Mal.

Christian Science Society

CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

"IS THE UNIVERSE, INCLUDING MAN, EVOLVED BY ATOMIC FORCE?" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, throughout the world on Sunday, June 19.

The Golden Text is: "The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein" (Psalms 24:1).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "He divided the sea, and caused them to pass through; and he made the waters to stand as an heap. In the daytime also he led them with a cloud, and all the night with a light of fire" (Psalms 78:13, 14).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Spirit is the life, substance, and continuity of all things. We tread on forces. Withdraw them, and creation must collapse. Human knowledge calls them forces of matter; but divine Science declares that they belong wholly to Mind, are inherent in this Mind, and so restores them to their rightful home and classification" (124: 25).

Game Department Reduces Personnel

TALLAHASSEE — The State Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission last week announced a 10 percent cut in personnel and a 15 percent reduction in overall operating expenses for the next fiscal year.

After a two-day session the five-man board approved a 1949-50 budget of $1,253,522 some $288,000 under this year expenditures. The proposed budget still must be passed upon by the State Budget Commission.

Game Commission Director Coleman Newman said the cut would mean that more than 30 game wardens, biologists and other personnel would be removed from the payroll July 1st. The commission employs about 300 persons, including 228 wardens.

No across the board slash was made, Newman said; however, virtually every department except the game management division suffered a sizeable reduction in operating funds. This division is supported largely through federal aid monies derived under the Pittman-Robertson Act.

The approved budget, Newman said, would reduce law enforcement expenditures 30 percent, and fish restocking nearly 35 percent. The Commission's scientific fisheries survey on Lake Okechobee and the St. Johns River, he said, would be cut in half.

Work on the agency's statewide radio communication network will also be held up in four of the five districts because of lack of funds, the director said. Installation of the system will be completed in the Fourth District, which covers Southeast Florida.

The legislature, which adjourned last Friday, rejected a bill which would have made more money available for expenses of the agency by increasing the cost of fishing licenses. It operates entirely on revenue from hunting and fishing licenses.

Beville Is Secretary Racing Commission

TALLAHASSEE — Governor Warren has announced the reappointment of B. P. Beville, of Gainesville, as a member of the State Racing Commission. Warren said Beville's original appointment, made on Jan. 4, was sent to the Senate along with those of the other four members of the Commission, but declared the Senate took no action on it.

The Senate confirmed the appointment of the other four members but made no announcement of any action on Beville's appointment. Since the Senate took no action, the Governor said, the position became vacant and it is his duty under the constitution to fill vacancies in any office. Beville is secretary of the Commission.

No Phone Increase For Quincy Area

TALLAHASSEE — The Quincy Telephone Company has been eased an increase in rates, following a hearing before the Florida Railroad and Public Utilities Commission. This is the second complete refusal in recent months for rate increases, the commission previously having rejected the application of the St. Joseph Telephone and Telegraph Company.

The commission in its order rejecting the Quincy company's application, noted that it was making more than 6 percent on its total investment, although it was showing a loss on the operation of its local exchange. Profits were made on the toll service. The commission order said there is no justification or foundation for separating the exchange from the toll service and considering each separately for the purpose of determining a fair rate of return. The over-all return, the commission found, is fair, reasonable and just.

After analyzing the testimony from the public hearing, the commission discovered that the telephone company has no funded (bond) debt, has only $55,500 in capital stock and has an unappropriated surplus of $42,153.

Annual Meeting Of Future Farmers

Conner is past president of the FFA organization and the first Florida Future Farmer to hold the national office in 10 years.

Addresses were made by State Supt. Thomas D. Bailey, FFA State Advisor H. E. Wood; Lewis F. Wood, vice-president, Southern Agriculturalist magazine; Floyd Call, executive secretary Florida State Bankers Association; Robert Hoskins, industrial forester, Seaboard Air Line Railroad and Representative Irlie Branson, Florida Cattlemen's Association.

FLAT RACE FEE

TALLAHASSEE — Governor Warren has signed into law a bill which would permit any horse race track whose daily average betting pool is less than $250,000 to pay a flat $4,000 daily fee to the State. The flat fee would be in lieu of the regular 8 per cent tax. At present the law will affect only Sunshine Park near Tampa.

Citrus Men Name 21 Man Board

LAKELAND — Florida Citrus Mutual reelected practically all of its 21-man board of directors at the seven district elections held last week and went ahead with plans for its annual membership meeting to be held here June 21, at 10:00 A. M., at Mayhall Auditorium.

Nineteen of the 21 directors were renamed. The other two probably would also have been chosen again but withdrew. Both are from Polk County: Tom Swann, of Winter Haven, and Ben Hill Griffin, Jr., of Frostproof. It was known that Swann sought to withdraw from active participation in Mutual, although friends tried to induce him to continue as director. He is a former member and chairman of the Florida Citrus Commission and a veteran of the Florida citrus industry. Griffin's announcement that he did not wish to be renominated came as a surprise.

The two new members of Mutual's board are well equipped for service on the directorate. They are George Riddle of Lakeland and John T. Lesley, of Haines City. Riddle was chosen early this month as a member of the important Growers Administrative Committee, which functions under the federal citrus marketing agreement. Riddle has no packing house connection. He has considerable acreage of his own and also serves as caretaker on much other acreage in many parts of the state, including the East Coast. Lesley is continuing as a member of the Shippers Advisory Committee under the marketing agreement. He is associated with the Haines City Citrus Growers Association.

The reelected Polk County director is M. C. Dopler of Lake Wales.

Approximately 600 growers attended the seven district elections. The result is considered a vote of confidence for the operation of Florida Citrus Mutual. The present directors were chosen three months ago after Mutual obtained 75 percent representation of the state's citrus production.

A. V. Saurman, of Clearwater, Mutual's president, was reelected. Chosen with him in District 1 at Tampa were Alonzo B. McMullen, Tampa, and Dallas J. Simmons, Bradenton. Other results were: District 2: J. W. McKethan, Brooksville; Lucy G. Thomas, Groveland, secretary; Vernon L. Conner, Mount Dora; District 3: W. H. McBride, Seville; Earl W. Brown, Pierson, and Harry E. Tooke, Jr., Sanford; District 4: C. Walton Rex, Orlando; A. G. Mann, Kissimmee and Dan L. McKinnon, Winter Garden; District 5: J. J. Parrish, Jr., Titusville, first vice president; W. M. Mosely, Fort Pierce, and A. B. Michael, Wabasso; District 6: W. S. Fletcher, Arcadia; Judge Clyde Maddox, Wauchula, treasurer, and Earl W. Hartt, Avon Park, second vice president.

Riddle's selection gave Lakeland, Mutual's official headquarters, its first representation on the board of directors. Those chosen will be submitted to the annual membership for ratification but this is considered little more than a formality.

Peggy Lynn Shirley is visiting her grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Willoughby, in Gainesville following which she plans to attend summer school at the Juliette Lowe School in Georgia.
